

Frequently Asked Questions Lisa-Marie Savard Photographie

Where are you located?

I live on Montreal Island and work in the surrounding cities. Since my family is in Saguenay, I sometimes do contract there when I visit them.

It's also possible to travel for weddings located in other cities across Quebec.

What types of photography do you do?

My niches are wedding and family photography, including maternity, newborn and family sessions.

Furthermore, I also do portraiture, whether it is commercial or personal, feminine boudoir and events.

Do you own a photography studio?

Yes, but only sessions involving infants can be done in studio.

For all other types of session, I work on location, whether they are indoors or outdoors. For instance, sessions can take place at your home, at the park or along the river bank.

What is your availability for photo sessions?

My availability is during week days and certain evenings during summer.

I regularly update my availability in the "Contact". section on my website.

What are your rates?

For more information about my packages and rates, contact me by email at lisamarie.savard@yahoo.ca.

In order to get the right rate, don't forget to precise what type of session interests you, the wished date and your city.

You will receive an answer in the following 24 open hours.

I would like to be informed about your promotions and special offers.

You can subscribe to my mailing list. It's available for the regions of Montreal and Saguenay. The mailing list can cover my new availabilities, special offers or promotions. Once a new event will be launched, you'll receive the information before everyone else.

To do so, please write me an email at lisamarie.savard@yahoo.ca with the subject «I would like to subscribe to (region of your choice) mailing list».
